III. General professional experience:

I am a partner at Phillips, Lytle, Hitchcock, Blaine & Huber, LLP in New York City. My practice consists of conducting and supervising general corporate and bankruptcy litigation and alternative dispute resolution in a variety of venues (principally Federal Courts). My clients are diverse and range from banks to international businesses to bankruptcy debtors and creditors. My practice is further diversified as a result of my appointments including as a Chapter 11 Trustee - Southern District of New York; Certified Guardian and Court Evaluator - State of New York; mediator - Southern District of New York; and Referee - New York Supreme Court.

I received a JD from Columbia University, an MBA from The American University, and a BA from Howard University. I have served as a judicial clerk for the Hon. Damon J. Keith, U.S. Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit. I taught as an Adjunct Professor at Columbia University School of Law and a Teaching Fellow at Detroit College of Law. I am a contributing author to Commercial Damages: A Guide to Remedies in Business Litigation, (C. Knapp, 1998). I served as a Co-Chair of the Bankruptcy Subcommittee, Committee on Race of the Second Circuit Task Force on Gender, Racial and Ethnic Fairness, and have been a member of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Eastern District of New York, Merit Selection Panels for the appointment of Bankruptcy Judges.

IV. General pertinent experience

I have participated as counsel, or as a mediator, in numerous successful mediations of bankruptcy cases in either the bankruptcy courts or district courts.

I have served and currently serve as a Chapter 11 Trustee in the Southern District of New York in cases which are complex in nature and which have demanded creative solutions.

V. Mediation training:

Mediation Skills Training, sponsored by the NASDR, Inc. and USBC-SDNY.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Among my firm's specialties is the representation of clients (debtors, creditors (individual and corporate) and committees) in corporate bankruptcies. As a working attorney, I have handled numerous bankruptcy litigations.
